

Go To Hell For Heavens Sake
Bring Me The Horizon

Am

For the love of god, will you bite your tongue

Fmaj7

Before we make you swallow it

Dm

It s moments like this where silence is golden

Em

And then you speak

Am

No one wants to hear you

Fmaj7

No one wants to see you

Dm

So desperate and pathetic

I m begging you to spare me

Em

The pleasure of your company

(When did the diamonds leave your bones?)

Am

I m burning down every bridge we make

Fmaj7

I ll watch you choke on the hearts you break

Dm

I m bleeding out every word you said

Em

Go to hell for heavens sake (2x)

(Go to hell for heavens sake)

Am

No one wants to hear you (Save your breath)

Fmaj7

No one wants to see you

Dm

So desperate and pathetic

You think that no one sees this

Em

I think it s time you knew the truth

Am

I m burning down every bridge we make

Fmaj7

I ll watch you choke on the hearts you break

Dm

I m bleeding out every word you said

Em

Go to hell for heavens sake (2x)

When did the diamonds leave your bones
Leave your bones

Am

You re not a shepherd, you re just a sheep

Fmaj7

I ll cut my depths of everyone you meet

Dm

You re own flesh with no bones

Em

Feed them to the sharks
And throw them to the wolfs

Am

I m burning down every bridge we make

Fmaj7

I ll watch you choke on the hearts you break

Dm

I m bleeding out every word you said

Em

Go to hell for heavens sake

Am

I m burning down every bridge we make

Fmaj7

I ll watch you choke on the hearts you break

Dm

I m bleeding out every word you said

Em

Go to hell for heavens sake
