

Everyday

Britney Spears

D F#m
Footsteps in the rain, memories wash away
Bm G
Beyond the headlight glare, it s kind of dark out there
D F#m
And everywhere I ve been, it s hard to find a friend
Bm G
I ve got no alibis for the state I m in

Em F#m
Everybody needs, needs a place to go
Bm G
God know s I have seen it s a twisting, winding road

D F#m
Every day, the sun comes up again
Bm G
A little hope begins and it starts with you cause you get me through it
D F#m
And every day, I m closer to the shore, I smile a little more
Bm G
And because of your faith, I get closer now every day

D F#m Bm G
Said every day, I said every day, every day

D F#m
It s hard to recognize, across the great divide
Bm G
Just what you left behind and what you keep inside
D F#m
A ripple in the calm, you keep my safe from harm
Bm G
Somehow you still believe, you believe in me

Em F#m
Where it starts and ends, only time must know
Bm G
Wherever you will be is where I wanna go

D F#m
Every day, the sun comes up again
Bm G
A little hope begins and it starts with you cause you get me through it
D F#m
And every day, I m closer to the shore, I smile a little more
Bm G

And because of your faith, I get closer now every day

Em F#m

Cause you set me free

Em G

Cause you set me free

D F#m

Every day, the sun comes up again

Em G

A little hope begins and it starts with you cause you get me through it

D F#m

And every day, I m closer to the shore, I smile a little more

Em G

And because of your faith, I get closer now every day
