

An Easy Life
Broken Bells

Capo 1

Em A

So tell me where it hurts
Do those stunts prove anything?
I doubt that I believe
That anyone is doing it
Darling, read this from a book
But you re the one you re hurting

A Dm

No, no, safe from distraction
Polishing all these severed hands
Oblivion is nice

C E A
Til it bites you in the ass

Em A

Up in your room
Without a single clue
The riddle of a name
In every poison arrow end
Twilight hours on a hook
With no money burning

A Dm
No, no, I gotta desert you
Quietly slide out your back door
The vertigo is nice

C E A
But it makes it hard to dance

C D A
Guess you want to win the prize

Company odds exchange this night

C D F A
Losing it all again ain t wise

Em A

Whoa, wait
She said that I record?
I got cheaper than I deserve
Look back from anything but
The question is simple
Why not be smiling?

A Dm

No, no, what did it hurt?
Leaving it all to happenstance
One of these nights

C E A
When I can t get settled down

What did it hurt?
Leaving it all to happenstance
One of these nights
