

Perfect World
Broken Bells

[Intro] Am C G Em D

Am C G
Oh london moon, help me stumble home
Em D
Let me lose myself along the way
Am C G
I ve got nothing left it s kinda wonderful
Em D
Cause there s nothing they can take away, away
(Am C G Em D)

Am C G
The open doors, left me wanting more
Em D
Never thought they d close them all the way
Am C G
The ordinary life they want for you
Em D
Is it too much to have to bear?

Am C
Well it s another way to any useless fight
G
You ve been lying so long don t know when you re faking
Em D
see the water on the rise
Am C
Just another day into a useless night
G
I ve been pushing so hard now my hands are shaking
Em D
see the water on the rise

[Refrão]

Am C G
But i ve been turned around, i was upside down
Em D
I thought love would always find a way
Am C G
But i know better now, got it figured out
Em D
It s a perfect world all the same, woah

[Refrão]
