Saving The World Brooke Fraser Intro:C7,D,C7,D Verse Didn t I tell you everything s fine? If there s a good and bad we re somewhere in between Bass joins in Often I feel like we re all navigating blind Could we get a change of pace to set the scene? Bridge Am Em We could stay another day in this confusion Em Let it permeate us til we can t move on Chrous But while we re waiting we could try saving the world Em Dsus4 Or are we storing that up for a rainy day? Em7 I m anticip-ating the time when it ll be my turn It could be fun to try D (ring) I think that I ll save the world... As a fun afternoon activity Instrumental: C7,D Verse NC Seventy thousand things to ponder today The most significant are bottom of the list Forty five million recipes and way-ys

Brige

To ex-aggerate and compound the stress

Am  $\mathbf{Em}$ We could stay another day in this apathy  $\mathbf{Em}$ Let it permeate us til we re numb thr-ough Chorus Em Em7 But while we re waiting we could try saving the world Dsus4 Or are we storing that up for a rainy day? D I m anticip-ating the time when it ll be my turn It could be fun to try D (ring) I think that I ll save the world Instrumental A C G A C G A C G A (ring) Chorus  $\mathbf{Em}$ Em7 And while we re waiting we could try saving the world Em Dsus4 Or are we storing that up for a rainy day? I m anticip-ating the time when it ll be my turn It could be fun to try Dsus4 I think that I ll save... Em And while we re waiting we could try saving the world Em Dsus4 Or are we storing that up for a rainy day?  $\mathbf{Em}$ I m antici-pating the time when it ll be my turn Em It could be fun to try D (ring) I think that I ll save the world