Standing right by the front door, don t you need me anymore ?

Should I stand up strong and quietly wait for your call ?

Feels like I am running slow and still going to fall

Went straight to my heart

Maybe got the wrong way out but didn t have a plan

You say I can t change but today I ve become a man

Means so much to me

Well it s one thing I had to live with and I ain t so proud of myself
But I know I did my best then ran away

I will have to get over it cause there is nothing else to do
These are all the things I ve been through since yesterday

Oh well I ve got nothing left to hide from you
Though I probably lost the touch , I need you so fucking much oh baby
I ve got nothing left to lose but you
Standing right by the front door, don t you need me anymore ?

Standing right by the front door, don t you need me anymore ?

It s a lonely day I have been spending without you
And if you really think I shouldn t wait
I ll just be on my way from tomorrow
