I ll never forget the first time I kissed her, and that s where the story begins
C                Am                F                G
At a dive bar named Gina s, in Encenitas, we met through a mutual friend
F                C
Had a hell of a time, yeah we went all night
F                G
By morning she messed up my head
C                Am                F                C
I swore her off, I ll be damned, I fell in love with tequila again

```

[Chorus]

```

G                C
We lost our minds, we danced all night
G                C
Picked up right where we left off
G                C
Raised hell with the boys, made all kinds of noise
D                G
Singin at the top if our lungs
C                Am                F                C G
Yeah, once again I ll, wake up on tile with a headache turned up to ten
C                Am                F                G
Asking myself, why the hell I fell in love with tequila again

      C              Am
I ve had some lovers, loved some more than others

      F              C      G
They ve all been a bitersweet buzz

C              Am              F              G
I ve had some vices, most more than thrice and none does me quite like she does
      F              C              F              G
I try to forget her, wish I d never met her, but I ll let her waltz right on in

We lost our minds, we danced all night

C              Am              F              G              C
