here s a great tune from the untouchable Bruce Cockburn. it s LONER from his his record Inner City Front. an alternate version also appears on the compilation Mummy Dust. this transcription isn t as technical as the way bruce plays it, but if you can sing along it sounds pretty good.

CHORDS: C# xx0232
E6? 020230
E? x4x450 (regular E also works alright here)
Bb 024400
G# x02220

TUNING: standard

C# E6
VERSE 1: down at the bus station
Eb Bb
shark grins and sandpaper conversation
C# E6
men s faces women s bodies on the magazine stand Eb Bb
and a headline about sarajevo and tehran

C# E6
VERSE 2: they are radiant angels they are earthly slaves
Eb Bb
they are predators moving in their endless days
C# E6
days of striving nights of novacaine
Eb Bb
never going to bring them freedom from their pain

C# E6
CHORUS: i m a lo-----ner
G# Bb
with a loner s point of view
C# E6

i ve always been a lo-----ner

G# Bb

now i m in love with you

C# E6

VERSE 3: wild shadows acid verbs
