

Brothers Under The Bridge
Bruce Springsteen

Intro: D

D
Saigon, it was all gone
G
The same Coke machines
D
As the streets I grew on
Down in a mesquite canyon
We come walking along the ridge
G Bm A D
Me and the brothers under the bridge
D
Campsite s an hour s walk from the nearest road to town

G
Up here there s too much brush and canyon
D
For the CHP choppers to touch down
Ain t lookin for nothin , just wanna live
G Bm A D
Me and the brothers under the bridge
D
Come the Santa Ana s, man, that dry brush ll light

G
Billy Devon got burned up in his own campfire one winter night
D
We buried his body in the white stone high up along the ridge
G Bm A D
Me and the brothers under the bridge
Bm G
Had enough of town and the street life

D A
Over nothing you end up on the wrong end of someone s knife
D
Now I don t want no trouble
And I ain t got none to give

G Bm A D
Me and the brothers under the bridge
D
I come home in 72

G
You were just a beautiul light
D
In your mama s dark eyes of blue
I stood down on the tarmac, I was just a kid
G Bm A D
Me and the brothers under the bridge

D

Come Veterans Day I sat in the stands in my dress blues

G

I held your mother's hand

D

When they passed with the red, white and blue

One minute you're out there

And something slips

Outro: G Bm A D
