

Every day ends in wasted motion

F#m A C#m

Just crossed swords on the killing floor

F#m E

To settle back is to settle without knowing

F#m A

The hard edge that you re settling for

B

Because there s always just one more day

C#m A

And it s always gonna be that way

B

Little girl you ve been down here so long

A

B

I can tell by the way that you move you belong to

E C#m

The Jackson Cage

Abm A

Down in Jackson Cage

E B

And it don t matter just what you say

E

B

Are you tough enough to play the game they play

A

C#m

A

Or will you just do your time and fade away

B

E

Down into the Jackson Cage

E

Baby there s nights when I dream of a better world

F#m A C#m

But I wake so downhearted girl

F#m

I see you feeling so tired and confused

E

F#m A

I wonder what it s worth to me or you

B

Just waiting to see some sun

C#m A

Never knowing if that day will ever come

Left alone standing out on the street

B

Till you become the hand that turns the key down in

E C#m

Jackson Cage

Abm A

Down in Jackson Cage

E B

Well darling can you understand

B

The way that they will turn a man

A C#m A

Into a stranger to waste away

B A E

Down in the Jackson Cage
