intro: C AM F G (2x)
                    Αm
the evening sun, has found someone, a true love, such as this Am
                                F
can never be undone, no one, can run from, a kiss
....what I miss....
(CHORUS)
    C
the moon light: magestic, the song s remedy meandering moments of sincerity
the mountain: in motion, tonight comes alive
                                                         C Am F G
as the golden brown sand, slips through your hand....tonight....
(verse2)
                 Αm
pondering purple pedals, whisper secrets, to the wind
whether we re together, doesn t matter, one bit
                                             F Am
i told you once , i ll tell you twice, you ll never forget Αm
you fooled me once, and it was nice, so fool me, again
....let s begin....
(chorus)
(solo)
(verses 1 & 2--back to back)
(chorus)
(intro)
end on C
