SONG: Reflecting Roadsigns (Some Kind of Something)

ARTIST: Bruda Doug

transcribed by: Norman Heinl

G Bm D Bm D
Reflecting roadsigns, brighter than night skies
G Bm D Bm D
from these tired head lights, the stars shine like lite brites
G Bm D Bm D
A night full of chances, steel chain-link fences
G Bm D Bm D
no second guesses, try hard to expect this

[[chorus]]

A Bm G D
You re try y ying to be, some kind of something
A Bm G D
and it seems right to me, to feign the formalities
Bm G D A
Is there nothing to, the people you use
Bm G D A [Bm G D A] 2X and whats there to prove, is there anything inside..of you?

G Bm D Bm D
Familiar expressions, exceptionally something
G Bm D Bm D
is at my discession, the faintest reflection
G Bm D Bm D
We re directing eyes towards, the wars that we fought for
G Bm D Bm D
fleeing the encore, what else is there more

(chorus)

instrumental: [A Bm G D] 2X

Bm G D A
Is there nothing to, the people you use
Bm G D A
and whats there to prove, is there anything inside..[of you?] 2X

Outro: [Bm G D A] 2X THEN END ON Bm
