Bruno Mars - Dont Give Up
Okay, I ve listened to this thoroughly and I believe this is as close to perfect as possible. any corrections feel free to correct it in the comments.

I strongly recommend bar chords for this song as the strumming sounds alot better with a reggae beat.

Strumming Pattern: For the Chorus its Twice down on the first B and once for A and G.

For the Verses its twice down on every chord.

For the Bridge its only once with every chord.

(As soon as you strum down, its best to mute the chord, either by lifting the fret finger of the bar or stopping the strings with your palm)

So here it is:

Intro:

B A G
OOooOOoh
 B A G
OOooOOoh
