Verse 1:

F#m7(no 3d)

Deep down in Mississippi
I found my sweet delta blues.
She weaved a little southernly,
Made a little voodoo.

She was born the bright side of midnight
When her mama was seventeen.

She was a hot blooded, God fearin' gospel girl,
The finest that I'd ever seen.
Oh.

Black Pearl,
Yeah, my kinda girl.
Just the kind of thing to rock my world.
Black Pearl,
She's my kinda girl.

Verse 2 (same as verse 1):

Met her in a dixie diner,
Put on the southern hospitality.
I can still smell her sweet molasses
Running all over me.
We started rollin' like a river,

Like a twister tearin through the town.
We we re tongue-tied, satisfied, southern fried.
As she drove this ol dixie down.
