

Get Away

Bryan Adams

From the 1998 album On a day like Today Tabbed by Tom Atkinson.

This sounds right to me and it hasn't been tabbed before.

If you find a fault e-mail me at supersonic_monkey@hotmail.com

Some useful chord shapes (6th string at top)

G	Am7	C	D	Admittedly the Am7 looks strange but use it cause it sounds ace and flows quite nicely from the G chord

Getaway

Intro: G Am7 C G

Verse 1:

G

Drove all night from New York City

Am7

in ya best friend's car

C

Knocked on my door 'bout five-thirty

G

Nursin' a broken heart

Still got your keys in your back pocket

Still got your jacket on

Back doors open baby, I don't lock it

We can leave anytime we want

Bridge:

I got my motor runnin

fingers drummin

I never planned to stay

Chorus:

C

Getaway, you know it s now or never

G

Getaway, nobody lives forever

Am7

C

G

We re only waitin just to make our getaway

Verse:

Hey baby, we were good together

Thought you d always be my girl

But lookin back now we were just too clever

Thinkin love would change the World

Bridge

You know there s no point in waitin

C

Hesitatin

We gotta leave today!

Chorus and then the chorus chords vamp round for (true to Bryan form) a few hours with some improvised solos on top and a few lines from the chorus thrown in.

True

fans will know what I m on about.
