Tell me something I must know
The burning question why
Half a man is twice as much
When he s on the line

Happiness, hard to get
Valentine in hand
None of them will ever guess
But you understand

E G#m

How many men in a world of their own

E G#m

There is no end to the great unknown

Tell me something I must know
I m outside looking in
Train of mirrors none so fair
Let the show begin

E G#m

How many men in a world of their own

E G#m

There is no end to the great unknown
