If it isn't 100% accurate, it's pretty close. Enjoy!

C Am F C
She came in the night on the ninth of October
Am C F G C
They looked me in my red eyes and said she won't last
C Am F C
We all knew that she should've slept until mid-December
Am C F G C
When it comes to the lot I have learned, I can't count on the cast

F C
That night a vision came
F Am G
At the same time both vivid and vague
F Am
Of a father looking on
F Am G G
As he burns to the ground the house that he made

C Am F C
When I woke, I had been slain in the spirit of reason
Am C F G C
Bap-tized in the rolling dark waters of doubt
C Am F C
Cause I'm told it's your will to withhold, but it feels like treason
Am C F G C
A rain cloud refusing to pour in a season of drought

F C
That night a vision came
F Am G
At the same time both vivid and vague
F Am
Of a father looking on
F Am G G
As he burns to the ground the house that he made

F C
And I heard him say
Am C
It was well on its way
F Am
Just look how it swayed
A# F
How it crumbled and caved

F C/G Am C
 As the crimson glow of the fire caught his eye
F Am C G
 I could tell he could hear, as well could I
F C Am C
 That along with the crackle and growl of the fire
F Am G
 Came a call quite small from inside--
G F Fm
 I m in here alive

C Am F C
 But now, a child is born, she is bent but not broken
Am C F
 A spark, a seed and a sprout
F7sus4 F
 A miracle or catastrophe
Am C F
 This child who s orphaned her family
