C Am F C
She came in the night on the ninth of October
Am C F G C
They looked me in my red eyes and said she won t last
C Am F C
We all knew that she should ve slept until mid-December
Am C F G C
When it comes to the lot I have learned, I can t count on the cast

That night a vision came

F Am G

At the same time both vivid and vague

F Am
Of a father looking on

F Am G G
As he burns to the ground the house that he made

C Am F C
When I woke, I had been slain in the spirit of reason
Am C F G C
Bap-tized in the rolling dark waters of doubt

C Am F C
Cause I m told it s your will to withhold, but it feels like treason
Am C F G C

A rain cloud refusing to pour in a season of drought

f F f C That night a vision came

F Am G

At the same time both vivid and vague

Of a father looking on

F Am G G

As he burns to the ground the house that he made

F C

And I heard him say

Am C

It was well on its way

F Am

Just look how it swayed

A# 1

How it crumbled and caved

F C/G Am As the crimson glow of the fire caught his eye Am C I could tell he could hear, as well could I C Am That along with the crackle and growl of the fire Am G Came a call quite small from inside--G F Fm I m in here alive C Am But now, a child is born, she is bent but not broken C A spark, a seed and a sprout F7sus4 F A miracle or catastrophe Am C This child who s orphaned her family
