Bryarly Bishop

My friend and I recently discovered this song and love it!! You can buy it on Bandcamp.com where she also posted the chords. This girl is amazing :) All credit goes to her.

Standard Tuning

Capo 6

F

My ankles keep clicking

C

My ideas keep sticking

F Bb

I wish that I had less time

F

But I m tired and tested

C

My heart double-breasted

F Bb

And I m waiting to lose my mind

F

I m loosely configured

C

And often delivered

F Bb

In packages tied with twine

F

I m easily dented

C

And partly demented

F Bb

And I m not even sure I m mine

F Gm

I don t mind

F Gm

I don t mind

F Bb F

I don t mind that I mind

F Bb F

I don t mind that I mind

F

I don t mind

F

My fingers are cracking

C

My spirit is lacking

F Bb

I wish I knew what to do

F

But I m slowed up and mindless

C

Deliberately kindless

F Bb

And I can t ever tell what s true

F

I m heartlessly hopeful

C

And childishly woeful

F Bb

My colors are tinged with blue

F

I know all my demons

C

Their names and their seasons

F Bb

But I m still getting used to you

F Gm

I don t mind

F Gm

I don t mind

F Gm

I don t mind

F Bb F

I don t mind that I mind

F Bb F

I don t mind that I mind

F Bb F

I don t mind that I mind

F

I don t mind
