INTRO: E F# B E B

B E B
Ten year have passed in what seems like a minute
F#
Just a restless boy intent on having fun
B E B
Now I step down from the bus beside my old school
F# B
A wiser man now that the journey s done.
E B
I ve learnt silence from those that speak their mind
E B F#
I ve learnt kindness from those who are unkind
B E B E
I ve travelled round the world in search of what I need
F# B
Found it all waiting back home in Aberdeen.

Refrain: E F# B E B

The river s lullaby that once subdued me
And the buzzing hills that improvised a wall
Are sweet now I no longer seek an answer
To the self-imposing saddest songs of all
And from that bitter root there grows a vine
That shows regret for wasted years is wasted time
Iâ€™ve travelled round the world in search of what I need
Found it all waiting back home in Aberdeen

Solo: F# B F# B E B F# B

Opaque clouds unmask a worried old face
But the images dissolve behind a tree
Unafraid of change and happy now in small ways
There is now as there always was, just me.
And though the future is far off this much I know
Nothingâ€™s as far away as one minute ago
I ve travelled round the world in search of what I need
Found it all waiting back home in Aberdeen

Iâ€™ve travelled round the world in search of what I need
Found it all waiting back home in Aberdeen

Refrain: E F# B E B
