

Irish Drinking Song
Buck-O-Nine

[Verse]

C Em
I stumbled in at 2am
F C
all drunk and full of smoke
C Em
My wife said I have had enough
F C
that s it I m sick get out!
F Am
So I stumbled down to Kelly s Pub
C G
a cross the edge of town
C Em
and I told the boys me story
F C
and we had another round

[Chorus]

C Em
and we ll drink and drink and F drink and drink and drink and drink
C
and fight
C Em
and we ll drink and drink and
F
and fight

[Verse]

F Am
and if I see a pretty girl I ll
C G
sleep with her tonight
C Em
and I ll drink and drink and F
and fight

[Verse]

And Mary McGregor well she was a pretty whore

she d always greet you with a smile and never lock her door but on the day she died all the men in town did weep for Mary McGregor finally got some sleep
Well I once loved a girl
a child I m told I gave her me heart and she gave me a cold
So now I sit standing out in the pouring rain
I ll stumble back to Kelly s Pub
and cry away me pain
