

Does My Ring Burn Your Finger
Buddy And Julie Miller

||: (E G) A | A | C D | A :||

When I gave you my heart, it was not what you wanted.
Now the walls say your name, and the pictures are haunted.

Does my ring burn your finger? Did my love weigh you down?
Was a promise too much to keep a-E-round?

I remember your words, and I can't keep from crying.
I could never believe that your kisses were lying.
Was there something from the past, buried in a shallow grave?
Did you think that it was too far gone to E save?

E Please tell me baby, please tell me now.
You D say that I should just go on now C please D tell me A how.

Now it's just me and the night, and I'm so broken hearted.
I just wait in the dark here for my dearly departed.
Did my ring burn your finger? Did my love weigh you down?
Was a promise too much to keep a-E-round?
