Verse/Chorus: He uses 4 chords, each is a bar chord: A major(5-7-7-6-5-5--), D major(X-5-7-7-7-5), D b9(X-5-7-8-7-5), and E major(X-7-9-9-9-7-----),. He only hits the top three or four strings, though. Anyway, the chords over the verse and chorus are like this:

A

Well, we re gonna rock to the rythem and the blues tonight, rock cause everything s gonna be alright. Cause tonight, we re gonna rock to the rythem and the blues.

D Dflat 9 A

E A

Repeat it three times, (2 verses and another chorus), and then there s this solo (It s just the intro played twice, the first time is just an octave lower. But I bet you already knew that.)
