Chords:

EADGBE
D7/F# - 200212
Em7 - 020000
F#m7 - 242222

C F#m7
My name is Tallulah, my first rule of thumb
G Em7
I don't say where I'm going, or where I'm coming from
F
I try to leave a little reputation behind me
G G7
So if you really need to, you'll know how to find me

My name is Tallulah, I live till I die,
I'll take what you give me, and I won't ask why
I made a lot of friends in some exotic places
I don't remember names but I remember faces

Chorus (All barred except the D7/F#)

B Em
Lonelyyyy, you don't have to be lonely
A7
Come and see Tallulah
D7/F#
We can chase your troubles away (ohhh)
B Em
If you're lonely, you don't have to be lonely
A7
When they talk about Tallulah, you know what they say
Dm7
No one south of heaven's gonna treat you finer
G G7
Tallulah had her training in North Carolina

My name is Tallulah, and soon I'll be gone
An open invitation, is the road I'll travel on
I never say goodbye because the words upset me
You may forgive my going but you won't forget me

Lonelyyyy, you don't have to be lonely

Come and see Tallulah, we can chase your troubles away (ohhh)
If you re lonely, you don t have to be lonely
When they talk about Tallulah, you know what they say
No one south of heaven s gonna treat you finer
Tallulah had her training in North Carolina

Jazz hands!
