

Big Dipper

Built To Spill

A F#m Bm Dm A
When I was little someone pointed out to me
A F#m Bm Dm A
Some constellations but the big dipper s all I could see
A F#m Bm Dm A
That brontasaurus must have stood a thousand miles high
A F#m Bm Dm A
That brontasaurus laying on its side up in the sky

Refrão:

Bm Dm
Bottoms up and this time
A F#m
Won t you let me be?
Bm Dm
Bottled up but this time
A F#m
Won t you rescue me?
E Bm Dm (hold)
You should have been here last night and heard what the big dipper said to me

A F#m Bm Dm A
Jack thought it twice and thought that that that made it true
A F#m
Some brains just work that way
Bm Dm A
that s what chemicals can do
A F#m
He thought he d have a beer
Bm Dm A
he thought he was alone
A F#m
He thought an Albertson s stir fry
Bm Dm A
dinner would make his apartment a home

Refrão:

Bm Dm
Bottoms up and this time
A F#m
Won t you let me be?
Bm Dm
Bottled up but this time
A F#m
Won t you rescue me?
E Bm Dm
You should have been here last night and heard what the big dipper said to me

A F#m
I thought I bored me but
Bm Dm A
I learned to think like you
A F#m
Now nothing bores me
Bm Dm A
that s that nothing is thought through

Refrão:

Bm Dm
Bottoms up and this time
A F#m
Won t you let me be?
Bm Dm
Bottled up but this time
A F#m
Won t you rescue me?
E Bm Dm
You should have been here last night and heard what the big dipper said