Built to Spill - In Your Mind

Tabbed by: Truly Ninja
Email: trulyninja@hotmail.com

Tuning: EADGBE

Intro: E / C / G x4

E C G E
the symptoms of our getting older
C G E
the problems that say we don't mind
C G E
that most of us never get over
C G E
the memories mingled with lies
C G E
coincidence gave a confession
C G E
that no one's allowed to forget
C G E
I don't wanna give the impression
C G E
that predestination is set
C G E
the distance will increase the danger
C G E
where certainty's never enjoyed
C G E
regarded as equal yet stranger
C G E
embark then embrace then destroy
C G E
observing the process will change it
C G E
and afterwards even if you
C G E
subconsciously rearrange it
C G E
it doesn't seem any less true
C G E
remnants of thought disappearing
C G E
and even transcending concern
C G E
disturbing but somehow endearing

C G E
conditioned to never unlearn

C G E
and no one can tell me to listen

C G E
and no one can tell me what s right

C G E
cause nobody has my permission

C G E
and no one can see in your mind

C / G / E

C G E
in your mind

C G E
in your mind

C G E
in your mind

C G E
when magnifications explore

C G E
there slowly emerges a pattern

C G E
the details you normally ignore

C G E
you notice really what matters

C G E
there isn t a time or a place

C G E
only an ebb and a flowing

C G E
a permanent repeating space

C G E
occurring, connecting and growing

and no one can tell me to listen
and no one can tell me what s right
cause nobody has my permission
and no one can see in your mind
in your mind
in your mind
in your mind
