

Synthesizers

Butch Walker

This is a pretty straight forward song that I was suprised had not been posted yet... This is what it seems to be when I listen to it, so I apologize for any mistakes.

C Em
Everybody s writing songs with synthesizers
F G
But I don t have a synthesizer

For once, once in your life

Won t you do what feels right
Am G C
Instead of waiting for the next big compromise
Em
Stop running your mouth

Get out of the house

Get yourself downtown

And shake it all out tonight

C,C, Em, Em,

C Em
I don t have any friends at Pitchfork or NME
