

None The Wiser
Butterfly Boucher

Artist: Butterfly Boucher

Song title: None the Wiser

Music and Lyrics written by Butterfly Boucher

Tabbed by: Kate and Sir Chris Flatley -

<http://profile.ultimate-guitar.com/chris+flatley/>

Tuning: Standard

Capo: None/Your liking

Notes: The dashes following the Dm-C- transitions in the verses signify a single beat, single strum, quick transition between the main chords in the verses Am and F. I have written F2 differently than F, but F2 really is the very same chord, F2 is just the bar chord version of F, whilst F is the power chord version. The low E string sounds better in bar chord version in the places in the song where I ve inserted it. The chord key at the bottom is meant for clarity, it is not my intention to patronise any musicians who are likely far more skilled than myself!

Special THANK YOU to Sir Chris Flatley for helping me with this tablature!
