

The Desert Song
Buz Connor

[Verse]

G

I heard a whisper

C

And rode out into the desert tonight

G

All alone in the full moonlight

G

Where am I going?

C

And how has this place become my home?

G

F

A country of sand and stone

G

Am

F

I can't believe it, I call your name

G

Em

Am

I can't believe it, why do I remain?

Am

Sometimes I remember, I can feel your smile

Am

G

I listen for your heart beat, and linger in your fragrance a while

[Verse]

G

I cannot think now

C

Of the time I last saw your face

G

Oh, there is no life in the place

G

It's all so familiar

C

This dreaming that someday we'll meet

G

F

I've grown lazy in the dust and heat

G

Am

F

I can't believe it, a wanderer's curse

G

Em

Am

I can't believe it, is there no end to this thirst

Am

Sometimes I remember, I can feel your smile

Am

G

I listen for your heart beat, and linger in your fragrance a while

[Verse]

G

This is your doing,

C

And it s always the story you tell

G

Avatar you re a flowing well

G

Oh I heard a whisper

C

Don t be a fool for this play that you see

G F

Let your thirst be a highway to me

G Am F

In the cool of the evening you call my name

G Em Am

I am a candle to your flame

Am

Now I remember, it s me you re thinking of

Am G F

Closer than my heartbeat, let s linger in the fragrance of love

[Chorus]

G Am F

In the cool of the evening you call my name

G Em Am

I am a candle to your flame

Am

Now I remember, it s me you re thinking of

Am G

Closer than my heartbeat, let s linger in the fragrance of love
