Revenge - Cady Groves

Standard Tuning

Capo:3

Hello fellow musicians! This is the first version of this song on here!

The strumming pattern of the song changes more than once.

It s easy if you listen to it; I play by ear so...It s also pretty repeative and easy to tell where the chords stop and change etc. I didn t want to be too detailed or vice versa because I know either is extremely frustrating. This is my second tab btw.

Enjoy! (:

Cuz even though I m surviving

I have opened up my eyes and

I see you clear as ice

Can you hear me now?

Are you in the crowd?
