Intro: G Dsus G/B C2 (2x)

[G] Out on these [Dsus] Texas plains
[G/B] You can see for a [C2] million lives
[G] And thereâ€™s a [Dsus] thousand exits
[G/B] Between here [C2] and the state line
[G] About the [Dsus] last time that [G/B] I saw [C2] you
You said [G] call me Pan[Dsus]dora
[G/B] Call me A [C2] fool
[G/B] And Iâ€™m thinking this view, it could [C2] do you some good
[G/B] So drop these scales and [C2] take a look

CHORUS

[D] Thereâ€™s forty [Em7] acres [C2] and redemption to be found
[D] Just a[Em7]long down the [C2] way
[D] There is a [Em7] place where no [C2] plow blade has turned the ground
[D] But you will [Em7] turn it over [C2] (hey)
[D] Cause out here hope remains [G] [Dsus] [G/B]
Cause out here hope remains [C2] [Dsus] [G]

Out here the Texas sky is as big as the sea
And youâ€™re alone in your room like an island floating free
Your spiritâ€™s hanging in a bottle on a tree
You say that youâ€™re the black sheep, I say youâ€™re still family
So throw that bottle to the waves
And Iâ€™ll bring you into me, and from the shore you will see

Out here the Texas rain is the hardest Iâ€™ve ever seen

Itâ€™ll wash your house away, but itâ€™ll also make you clean
And all these rocks are crying out too
And this whole land is calling out for you

CHORUS

(Repeat last line twice, end with G)
