London, London

D A D
I m wandering round and round, nowhere to go

G A D
I m lonely in London, London is lovely so

G A
I cross the streets without fear

D Bm
Everybody keeps the way clear

G A D
I know I know no one here to say hello

G A
I know they keep the way clear

D Bm
I am lonely in London without fear

G A D
I m wandering round and round, nowhere to go

G A G A D
While my eyes go looking for flying saucers in the sky (2x)

D A D
Oh Sunday, Monday, Autumn pass by me

G A D
And people hurry on so peacefully

G A
A group approaches a policeman

D Bm
He seems so pleased to please them

G A D
It s good to live, at least, and I agree

G A
He seems so pleased, at least

D Bm
And it s so good to live in peace

G A D
And Sunday, Monday, years, and I agree

G A G A D
While my eyes go looking for flying saucers in the sky (2x)

D A D
I choose no face to look at, choose no way

G A D
I just happen to be here, and it s ok

G A

|Green grass, blue eyes, grey sky

2x|                   D                                   Bm

|God bless silent pain and happiness

|           G                                   A                                   D

|I came around to say yes, and I say

G           A                                   G           A           D
