Sweetie Little Jean where did you go?
Everyone s been searching high and low
                C#m
And your mother s worried sick
Dearest daddy lost his grip
While the whole world s watching
Candlelight vigils being held in silence
C#m
           G#m
On the channel four
               G#m
And they ve knocked every door
Every place you ve been before
      C#m
                   G#m
How long will we let it go?
       C#m
I think we should just let go
            C#m
I, I want you back (back)
       G#m
Let s get back
Lay my weary head against your bones
Where all my troubles will be dead and gone
