The War Is Over
Cage the Elephant

[Intro] Fm

[Verso 1]

Fm
   When I was a young man, I never needed anyone
Fm   C#
Bruised and broken, shattered, always on the run
                          C
Safe behind a half-smile, laying in the shadows
Fm
  I became a rich man, I held the world up with my hands
  Fm   C#
Inside I was a poor man, still screaming, I don t understand
                         C
 Why am I always running?   Why am I always hiding?
C#   C
   What s the point in living   when living feels like dying?

[Refrão]

               Fm
You can build your walls, love will tear it down
                Fm
You can hide your heart inside a man-made house
              C#   C
You can build your walls, build em to the sky
            C#   C
One day you will find love was on both sides
(Parada)
The war is over

[Verso 2]

Fm
   I came upon a wise man, he said, Sit beside me son
Fm   C#
 When I was a young man, I was like you, the Prodigal Son
                    C
Safe behind a half-smile,   hidin in the shadows
C#   C
  Tell em that it s all right, tell em cause you said so

[Refrão]

               Fm
You can build your walls, love will tear it down

```
                  Fm
You can hide your heart inside a man-made house
                    C#                          C
You can build your walls, build  em to the sky
                  C#                    C
One day you will find love was on both sides
Fm                                 C#
  The war is over, love s already won
                      C
The war is over,   the war is over
Fm                                      C#
  The war is over, love s already won
                      C
The war is over,   the war is over

[Ponte]

C#                      Bbm
Time stands still so long
C           Fm
I feel so low
C#                 Bbm              C
I know what follows, what follows

[Refrão]

                  Fm
You can build your walls, love will tear it down
