

Whole Wide World
Cage the Elephant

[Intro] F# B

F# B
When I was a young boy

F# B
My mama said to me

F# B
There s only one girl in this world for you

F# B
And she probably lives in Tahiti

F#
I d go the whole wide world

B
I d go the whole wide world just to find her

(F# B)

F# B
Or maybe she s in the Bahamas

F# B
Where the Caribbean Sea is blue

F# B
Weeping in a tropical moonlit night

F# B
Because nobody s talking about you

F#
I d go the whole wide world

B
I d go the whole wide world just to find her

F#
I d go the whole wide world

I d go the whole wide world

F# B
To find out where they hide her

F#
I d go the whole wide world

B
I d go the whole wide world just to find her

F# B
Why am I hanging around in the rain out here

F# B
Trying to pick up a girl

F# B
Why are my eyes filling up with these lonely tears

F# B
When there s girls all over the world

F# B
Is she lying on a tropical beach somewhere

F# B
Underneath a tropical sun

F# B
Pining a way in a heat wave there

F# B
Hoping that I won t be long

F# B
I should be lying on that sun soaked beach with her

F# B
Caressing her warm, brown skin

F# B
And then in a year or maybe not quite

F# B
We ll be sharing the same next of kin

F#
I d go the whole wide world

F# B
I d go the whole wide world just to find her

F#
I d go the whole wide world

F#
I d go the whole wide world

F# B
To find out where they hide her

F#
I d go the whole wide world

F# B
I d go the whole wide world just to find her

F#
I d go the whole wide world

F# B
I d go the whole wide world just to find her

F#
I d go the whole wide world

F#
I d go the whole wide world

F# B
To find out where they hide her
