

Whole Wide World
Cage the Elephant

[Intro] G C

G C
When I was a young boy

G C
My mama said to me

G C
There s only one girl in this world for you

G C
And she probably lives in Tahiti

G
I d go the whole wide world

I d go the whole wide world just to find her C

(G C)

G C
Or maybe she s in the Bahamas

G C
Where the Caribbean Sea is blue

G C
Weeping in a tropical moonlit night

G C
Because nobody s talking about you

G
I d go the whole wide world

I d go the whole wide world just to find her C

G
I d go the whole wide world

I d go the whole wide world

G C
To find out where they hide her

G
I d go the whole wide world

I d go the whole wide world just to find her C

G C
Why am I hanging around in the rain out here

G C
Trying to pick up a girl

G C
Why are my eyes filling up with these lonely tears

G C
When there s girls all over the world

G C
Is she lying on a tropical beach somewhere

G C
Underneath a tropical sun

G C
Pining a way in a heat wave there

G C
Hoping that I won t be long

G C
I should be lying on that sun soaked beach with her

G C
Caressing her warm, brown skin

G C
And then in a year or maybe not quite

G C
We ll be sharing the same next of kin

G
I d go the whole wide world

G C
I d go the whole wide world just to find her

G
I d go the whole wide world

G
I d go the whole wide world

G C
To find out where they hide her

G
I d go the whole wide world

G C
I d go the whole wide world just to find her

G
I d go the whole wide world

G C
I d go the whole wide world just to find her

G
I d go the whole wide world

G
I d go the whole wide world

G C
To find out where they hide her
