My first tab, the original version of Wishing Well by Caitlin Rose.

For the [bass walk] bit, which she does occasionally at changes from G to Em she basically just goes -3-2-0- on the top E string.

Also, for the opening G in the chorus she does strums once and sings the line before moving to the Em

Think that s everything, all the best!

G Em
though i don t know when I ll hit the bottom
C D G
I been fallin for so long that I can t tell
G Em
I know that you ll never hear me calling
C D G
From the bottom of my sinful wishing well

[bass walk]

Em G
I been makin lots of friends along the way
Em C D
and they all tell me you ll come back some day
G
Wish I could believe em
Em
but my friends are so deceivin
C D G
and so full of all the easy things to say

[Chorus]

Em G
every poison penny as it falls
Em C D
carves your poison name up on the wall
G
and they re piling up so fast
Em
I can t make my wishes last

C D G
I don t think They re doin any good at all

Em
cause I been thinking hurricaines and

bullets fallin down like rain

D G
I think of you and that s just when it starts

Em
In the dark you know I ve seen it

C
But you know that I don t mean it

D G
from the bottom of my angry broken heart

[Chrous]
