

Gigantomachy

Cake Bake Betty

[Verse]

Bm                     D                     G     A
Found yourself a serpent this time
Bm                     D                     G                     A
Flames are spitting sure from his tongue and his eyes
Bm                     D                     G     A
Lusting for the fruits we have tried
Bm                     D                     G                     A
Pluck yourself an eyelash and pray that your bones will rise

[Chorus]

C   D
Speaking in tongues you ve got gin in your belly
C   D
Yes something was wrong from the start
C   D
With eyes wide and dark you have something to tell me
C   D
I carry your bones in my heart

[Verse]

Bm             D                     G     A
Riding on horseback he came
Bm                     D                     G                     A
Darkness in his fingertips, eyes just the same
Bm                     D                     G     A
Told me there was no one to blame
Bm                     D                     G                     A
I was all the while clenching the omen you gave to me

[Chorus]

C   D
Rise with the sun and the skies are wide amber
C   D
I dreamt of your calling again
C   D
You told me to run from temptations of grandeur
C   D
That come with the visions of him

[Bridge]

Bm                     D

Deep in my sleep,

A G6

Bones I was holding,

Bm D A G6

Swallowed by hunger to see you again

Bm D

Running through fields,

A G6

Sweet seas of golden,

Bm D A G6

There it was you in the house near the grain

Bm D

Dark like the night,

A G6

High like the noontime,

Bm D A G6

Bitter and begging my dear don t you go

Bm D

Your eyes were all wild,

A G6

Your lips took to woo mine,

Bm D A G6

You grabbed me and tugged at my soul through your own

Bm D A G6

I knew it well then we d go down to the river

Bm D A G6

You d cleanse what was left of me under the tide

Bm D A G6

The sun turned to ash and your body was withered

Bm D A G6

Your bones I let go and the dream did subside
