Away, I m bound away

Seeing as this song is very simple, I figure you can play along to the rest it without any problem. So here are the rest of the lyrics:

I m circling, I m swiveling, I m waiting just to land
I m trying to come home, but I m here with the band
Traveling, unraveling, I m staying on track
My plastic utensil has broken in half

Away, away, away, away
Away, I m bound away

There s low visibility, gusty wind and rain
My carry-on luggage is still on the plane
Seconds turn to minutes, minutes turn to hours
Hours give you a lifetime and a grave with pink flowers

Away, away, away, away
Away, I m bound
Away, away, away, away
Away, I m bound away

Away, I m bound

Away
