Cake

Dm Am
So you ll be an Austrian nobleman

Dm C G
Commissioning a symphony in c
Bb F
Which defies all earthly descriptions
Bb F
You ll be commissioning a symphony in c

Dm Am
With money you squeeze from the peasants
Bb F
To your nephew you can give it as a present
Dm C G
This magnificent symphony in c
Dm Am C G
You ll be commissioning a symphony in c

F C Dm G C F C
G C

Dm Am
Completely filling the palace concert hall
Bb F
Its warm and golden like an oven that s wide open
Dm Am
It has a melody both happy and sad
Dm C G
Built on victorious young triads

Dm Am
You ve entered the room with great caution
Bb F
Though no one in the hall is even watching
Dm Am
They are transfixed
Dm C G
They are forgetting just to breath
Dm C
They are so taken by your symphony...
