

I m pretty sure this is basically right, and very simple.

Am D
Come away my love

Em D
I don't want you touching everything

Am D
Everyone's so clean

Em D
Everyone but you

Am D
I want him standing still

Em D
Want him but I know he never will

Am D
Hold him down

Em D
And in the yard it's raining down these

Am C
Bullets of the damned

Em D
And everyone's explaining

Am C
In a voice I'll understand

G D
And I know by now

Am C
Can I but believe you see the sirens in my eyes

G D
I don t wanna live
Am
I don t wanna die
C G
I don t wanna hear I never cared enough to try
D Am
Sometimes it s too fucking dark to see the bright light
C
Right in front of your eyes
G
This is my life

What s your favorite song?
What if all your memories are wrong?
Do you think you re free?
Do you want to be?
Everyone is here
All your friends have come to wish you well
Can t you tell
I can feel their breathing space
It s sucking up the air
But I cannot feel any feeling
Long enough to care
In another year
No one ll believe me when I tell em that sometimes

Am D Em D x2

and then only Am and D then it goes to ->

( Chorus )
