Splitter Calexico Capo 2 Intro Em B7 C G (x2)DCG Verse: G Through the gardens and fields $\hat{a} { \varepsilon }^{ \sim } neath$ the tall green grass Em You were walking â€~neath the moon while covering your tracks С G Working your fingers down to the skin and stone Chorus: Em в7 C G One hand on the hammer, one foot by the door Em в7 С G D Pushed by the wind, fed by the need for moving on, C G Moving on to nowhere Verse: G When division runs deep and down into the well Em All the coins you dove after lost all their spell С G Covered in moss walking for silver and blood Chorus: Em B7 C G Out in the cafe, working in the grove Em в7 С G Guarding the port of the future you sold G D С Holding on, holding on to no one D С G Holding on, holding on to no one

в7 С G \mathbf{Em} One eye in the mirror, the other on the screen Em в7 C G Sewn in the pockets and down into the dream Em в7 С G Caught up in the mortar, bricks and heavy load Em в7 C G Wait in the shadows down the living road D C G Moving on, moving on to no one D С G Holding on, holding on to no one

Pretty sure this is right, although he seems to do a sort of walkdown thing between the Em and the C in the verses which I can t figure out. Anyways, great song, great band. Check out the album its from, Algiers. It s great.