Song: "Get A Life"

Artist: "Calibretto 13"

Album: Enter the Danger Brigade(Tooth & Nail, 2000)

Tab By: Steve Cox (Steco682@aol.com)

Cool song by a new "acoustic punk" band. Easy to play. There are a couple bass solos that I didn't feel like tabbing out, but they're not hard to figure out. Enjoy.

All Chords Barred

Now every weekend is the same routine.

You get hooked up and you do the same old thing.

You smoke some marijuana, get as high as a kite.

Take down 3 more beers, get into another fight.

Go upstairs with a girl and sleep around.

Wake up the next morning find yourself on the ground.

This so-called-life that you live is full of sin,

G#(stop) Eb(stop)

But my God can set you free if you would just let Him in.

And you need to get a life!
