C#m
Old Man Thorn, he was good,
A
He was just misunderstood.
E
He never took nobody s life,
B
So how come his ended in strife?
C#m
They came in one gloomy night,
Came with the darkness, stole the light.
E
They took him out back and bashed his head.
B
One month later he was found dead.

A B C#m
Is there anybody out there?
A B G#m
Is there anybody listening?
A B C#m
If there s a God, oh, could You hear Him?
A
Was he screaming out in vain?
G#m
Did You even know his name?

C#m
Julie was a sweet little girl,
A
Said a prayer before every meal.
E
So how come Father was so bad?
B
She couldn t even call him Dad.
C#m
He made her live her life in pain,
Took her trust, made her insane.
E
Where were You when he broke her down?

B

Did You even hear a sound?

Am G#m
Life is short, and life is gray.

Am G#m
What am I living for anyway?

Am G#m
Consequences I must pay

Am G#m
If I don't get it right today.

Am G#m
The world just seems so unfair.

Am G#m
We are living in the monster's lair.

Am G#m
I need to know You're on the throne.

Am G#m Bm Am G#m
I wonder when You'll take us home.
