```
Looking Back
Cálix
( M. Cioglia )
INTRO
(Am - G/B - C - D9 4) 2x
                    C D9 4
                                           Am
                                                  C D9 4
             Am Looking back
                             at your freedom
                  C D9 4
                                                C D9 4
                                         Am
           Am
Fly as high as an eagle
                                                         C D9 4
                         C D9 4
                  Am
                                                 Αm
Make your time,
                               feed your people
                      C D9 4
                                                      C D9 4
               Am Αm
                                that's within' you
With the love,
                    D9 4
G
                              C
                                                          G
Stay away from people that can't smile
Doing just what you think is right
                         D9 4
Believe the love though you may been hurt before
Doing just what you think is right
Em
Love is something fancy words Just can't describe
It can only reach you when your heart is open wide
And the moment your light comes into my eyes
                                                 C C9
                                            D
```

G

Am G/B C D9 4
Take my hand and let me take too
Am G/B C D9 4
Take my hand and let me take too

I'll surrender to the heat of your soul