D D7 G D
There s a blizzard comin on how I m wishin I was home
D D A A
For my pony s lame and he can t hardly stand
D D7 G D
Listen to that northern sigh if we don t get home we ll die
A A Bm Bm
But it s only seven miles to Mary Anne
A A D D
It s only seven miles to Mary Anne

verse 2

D D7 G D
You can bet we re on her mind for it s nearly Christmas time
D D A A
And I ll bet there s hot biscuits in the pan
D D7 G D
Lord my hands feel like they re froze and there s a numbness in my toes
A A Bm Bm
But it s only five more miles to Mary Anne
A A D D
It s only five more miles to Mary Anne

verse 3

D D7 G D
That wind s howlin and it seems mighty like a woman s screams
D D A A
So we d best be movin faster if we can
D D7 G D
Dan just think about that barn with that hay so soft and warm
A A Bm Bm
It s only three more miles to Mary Anne
A A D D
It s only three more miles to Mary Anne

verse 4

D D7 G D
Dan get up your ornery cuss or you ll be the death of us

D D A A
 I m so weary but I ll help you if I can
D D7 G D
 All right Dan perhaps it s best that we ll stop awhile and rest
A A Bm Bm
 For it s still A hundred yards to Mary Anne
A A D D
 It s still a hundred yards to Mary Anne

Verse 5

D D7 G D
 Late that night the storm was gone and they found him there at dawn
D D A A
 He had made it but he couldn t leave ol Dan
D D7 G D
 Yes they found him there on the plains his hands froze to the reins
A A Bm Bm
 He was just a hundred yards from Mary Anne
A A D D
 He was just a hundred yards from Mary Anne
