I believe he uses a wah-wah in the next part:

I don t know how to call the next part but it s cool!!

lyrics:

Sounds to be where, you want to scream
Always left withouth,saying hello
I ve seen chains that bear less, snap and fall long before you let go Times run over your sink onto my floor,

It s okay we ve cleaned them many times before simple lessons are, simple lessons are, simple lessons are simple lessons are, simple lessons are Sounds might be where, yeah i want to cry
 Always left before , i said hello
 He s had days where shades of brilliance,never granted him space Green shades of painfull rains,it s okay,they ll wash away now simple lessons are, simple lessons are, simple lessons are
 simple lessons are, simple lessons are Always, taught you how, drain yourself empty
 Always, taught you how, drain yourself empty
 We ve all scared up from ages of childish games
 Yet i ve never seen your head up higher
 It feels real this time, i seen your happy again
 Reel in it for awhile,oh enough to take my place
 Sounds to be where,you want to scream
 Always left without saying hello
 I ve seen chains that bear less, snap and fall long before you let go
 You before you let go!
