I never say the right thing
C G F
But you always laugh before G C G F G x2
you turn away from me

Verse 2:

C G F G
And our hearts live in a place
C G
With the napkins we scribbled on F G
The trains that left too late And

C

there s something

G

special about you

C

There s something

G

special about all the things that you do

F

And on the rooftop

of your building

G

Where the city

seems so big

F

I just can t

find a place

G

to put all of the things I want to keep

Post Chorus: C G F G x2

Verse 3:

C

G

F

Like how things don t

G C

G

change How you can talk

F

to me without saying

G

anything And the

F

G

same sad movies

C

you watch over

G/B

F

and over again

F

Hoping for a

G

different end but

Chorus 2:

C

there s something

G

special about you

C

There s something

G

special about all the things that you do

F

And on the rooftop
of your building

G

Where the city
fills my ears

F

I just can t find a

G

place to put all of the years Where did they go?
