

Gloria Canterbury

Awesome song ;)

So this is just a suggestions of chords i m sure you can arrange it and play it the way you want.

G Csus
Youâ€™ve got this thing in your mind that itâ€™s all for the best
G Em
Iâ€™ve got this thing in mind that starts from the chest
G (Em) G
Breathing forced, reading lines meaning i m out of time
G Csus
Well time was a thing that we thought was a thing that we had
G Em
Iâ€™m getting wasted I am half full starting to flirt
G G
I donâ€™t want this thing to overflow

Csus
If you believe what s said in secrets
D or Dsus (G)
Say this to me when I ask you now

G
You wanna dance tonight?
D
You wanna cross the line?
Csus
When I tripped and I fell and landed straight at your feet
G
From down here I see the line s looking blurry tonight

Well blurry lines in my eyes make me willing to cross
Well blurry minds make me feel uneasy
Heart warming sweet talking reasons Iâ€™m over the line

Lying alone feelings wrong but it s all for the best
It could be worse we could both be lying
Even with miles of rope
I still wouldnâ€™t have a hope if started going down by the head

But youâ€™re alive both safe and stable
Let me in i ll sail away for you ...
