I Figured Out How I Feel About You Captain Chaos

simple as hell song. all you need is a capo and an ounce of talent (second ingredient is debatable). all chords are relative to the capo so when it says C make a C shape. its technically an F# but you can just pretend.

capo on 6th fret.

See, at the time I was running low on hope F I was at the end of the end of the end of my rope C And I was down on my luck, so I couldn t give a fuck, F Something made me think I should try to rob a bank C And maybe then my face would finally be in the paper F The reporter would mention that I was a singer C And the people would want to hear my troubled songs They d send me letters in jail tellin me how they liked them F G And I wouldn t worry about bein set free C F It d be enough knowin that people listened to me sing F And on the day I was eventually released F C C There d be so many people waitin out there to meet me C To meet me C Well that was autumn and I walked through the winter F Now it s spring, no, it s nearly summer C And my feet are tired and my hands are so cold F But I m almost home, just a few blocks to go C But what awaits me there? I do not know F Will there be FBI guys waiting at my door? C Or will the coast be clear? When I finally make it there After all of this walkin I don t know if I care F But it would be so nice C to open up the door and to step inside \mathbf{F} G To throw this bag down on the floor C And not have to worry about it anymore F G And I would feed the cat and I would check the mail C Call up all of my friends and let em know I m not in jail F G Tell em sometimes it s worth all the chances you take С \mathbf{F} And start thinkin about all the smoothies that I m gonna make F С \mathbf{F} C C That I m gonna make
